LET ME GIVE YOU A TIP.

If you are looking for new goods in pleasing designs and at bedrock prices. You need go no further than our store for we constantly pursue the policy of securing all that is latest and hest and place the goods on sale at prices which will convince any man or woman that we know how to give fullest values to our hundreds of patrons. It is the policy of this store to keep constantly in touch with the leading markets of the world and touch end with the leading markets of the world and touch with the leading markets of the world and touch with the leading bargains. The representatives of the large wholesale houses know this policy of ours and they are quick to advise us when they have any unusually good things to offer. We believe in taking our friends and enstourers in our confidence. We are proud f the reputation we have established and we are perfectly willing all should know the actions on which the business has been built up for they are straightforward and homorable methods that are a credit to any firm. We want that confidence to exist between you and us which will justify your giving us all your trade in the kind of goods we sell.

"WHAR DEW I CUM IN?"

That's a mighty lot er talkin' about farmers 'n that rights,

'N the wonderful prosperity thet beet growin' invites.

That's er heap of foolish crowin' 'n the "beats" begin ter shout

'N holler fer the Tariif ter keep free raw sugar out!

But 1 notis thet the beet-producin' farms are very few.

An' the farmers through the country aint got nuch cf it ter dew.

The hull 1 and aint a-raisin' beets, 'n aint gold' ter begin,

Beet growin's right fer sum, I guess—hut, whar dew I cum in?

Beet growin's right for sum, I guess—but, what dew I cum in? The farmer girls four dollars now for every too o' beets—A hansum price, I must allow—but hidin's sum deceits. Beet sugar manyfacterers admit es they hev found. Thet "granyfacter" costs 'em aumthin' like tew cents a pound. In fact thet leaves a position which they'd greatly thrive—And—if it kin be sold for there, why should we pay 'em FIVE? It seems ter me es the's a gainer thet's mighty like a skin—But—if that's any benefit—waal—what dew I cum in?

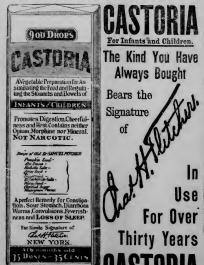

Aud—if it kin be sold for three, why should we pay 'em FIVE? It seems ter me ea thei's an gut here's might like a skin—But—if that" any benefit—wall—what dew I cum in? When Uncle Sam's in want of cash we're glad ter help him out, 'N we'll stand all the taxes thet are needed, never doubt, But when his pocket-book's we'll lined an' rang cent he lacks, Et seems ter me his duty's ter repeal thet sugar tax. Them fellers wot is interested see it's to protect. The beet-producin' farmer thet the duty they collect, The beet-producin' farmer thet the duty they collect, The beet-producin' farmer thet en sittle bit too thin—The sugar maker,—the's all right;—but—what dew secom in? Take off raw sugar duty an' the price will quickly fail, To everybody's benefit, for sugar's need by all. The poor will bleas the Government thet placed it in that reach-('N millions of our citteres free angar now beseech). The dealer til be delighted the standard of the standard that the sugar tax to day. When our teasury's a budget a sold a lack a present are but alim. An' the farmer 'il he as well paid as he ever yet hes ben—But he'll by his sugar cheaper—thet's what he an' Fill cum in. Now, what's the sense or reason of the sugar tax to-day, When our teasury's a budget an' whe he no debts ter pay? The duty on raw sugar's Fifty million every year—An' the people's got ter pay it—the'ta a fact thet's very clear. Fifty million Great Jerushal Ter protect beet magnates, too, Why should they tax ALL the people—just thet's very clear. Fifty million of rotal Jerushal Ter protect beet magnates, too, Why should they tax ALL the people—just ter he'pa a scattered Fg' And the FEW? Beet-sugar MAKERS! Don't it really seem as in Thus ter help an' fill that coffera? What dew you an' I cum in?

The farmer growin' beets hes got a contract price for year,—Free raw sugar wouldn't hut him, an' of it he has no fears, But mebbe, like myself—he's also growing fruit so nice—Ter preserver te-mat a protect-he needs sugar—and a protect.

The tax mo longer needed—hat full t

Thet he oughter do his best ter kill that tax without delay!
Feller-farmers, do your stunots—whether you grow bests or not—
To repeal the tax on sugar—you can but improve your lot!
Cheaper sugar helps your pocket, greater blessings you can win—
